

ENTRE L'ESPASA I LA PLOMA

Conferences on linguistics, literature and history

Facultat de Geografia i Història – Universitat de València

24th and 25th October 2019

The Investigadors Doctorands en Estudis Medievals de la Universitat de València (IDEM) and the Associació de Joves Investigadors en Llengua i Literatura Catalanes (AJILLC) are working together to organize these conferences whose goal is bring to the fore from an interdisciplinary perspective the social interest and the importance of the research on linguistics, literature and history of the Crown of Aragon between the 13th and the 18th centuries. Faced with an increasing loose of prestige of Arts and the attempts to put them away in the academic domain, this meeting aims, not only, at encouraging the exchange of views and knowledge among the researches, but also at highlighting the social significance which lies in every curious regard towards the preterit societies.

We encourage to send us proposals for communication all the researchers who had registered for a doctoral programme or who had defended their doctoral thesis less than five years ago, and who carry out a research inside the geographical, chronological and thematic boundaries listed before.

The conferences “Entre l’espasa i la ploma” [Between the sword and the feather] will take place in the Facultat de Geografia i Història de la Universitat de València (Avenue Blasco Ibáñez, 28) between the 24th and 25th October 2019.

Elegible applicants must:

- Hold a university degree or Bachelor in Arts
- Have been registered for a doctoral programme or have defended the Doctoral thesis less than five years ago in the moment of publication of this circular.
- Carrying out or having carried out an original research on the Crown of Aragon or on of its territories between the 13th and the 18th centuries.

You can send us your proposals using the following request form not later than 1st April.

Scientific Committee will decide upon the admission of communications and will communicate it to the rapporteurs during the month of May 2019. Rapporteurs must pay the inscription fee (10 €) once their proposal has been accepted.
